

VILLAGE ADDICTS GAZETTE

Meeting Highlights June 5, 2010

VAA Members enjoyed a great picnic lunch, which was organized by Peggy Jauregui, with Cora Smith providing hot dogs (including chicken hot dogs!) and buns, potato salads, cole slaw, bean salad, deviled eggs and lots of deserts.

The meeting was called to order at 1:00 by co-presidents Myrna Richardson and Kimberly Harmon, returning from her two month work-related stay in Atlanta, Georgia.

New Members - welcome back to Rhonda and Pat Colgan, along with Bill Fox.

Stan reported that annual renewals are in progress. A complete Treasurer's Report with up-to-date financial information will be reported in August.

October Reunion Birthday Party - VAA is planning a Birthday Party and Reunion for the October Meeting to celebrate the start of VAA's 20th year. Peggy and Pat Harmon are collecting addresses from "old" members who are no longer active members. We plan to invite the former members to join us for the October Birthday Party - Reunion luncheon. We're planning lots of surprises, including the raffle of the Reissue of the Original Seven Dickens' Village pieces, all signed by the designer. Only 100 tickets will be sold at $35 each and tickets will be limited to two to a membership (individual or family). Tickets will be sold at the August meeting.

Membership - Peggy reported that lots of people are paying their annual dues at the meeting and some members mailed their dues to Peggy before the meeting.

NCC - Alita Rabe gave the NCC Report for Judyth Rischall, who was attending the high school graduation of her grandson. Congrats to Judyth. The NCC is hosting the "Seasons of Michigan" Gathering to be held in Livonia, Michigan, from September 16-19, 2010. Judyth and Alita will be there - any other VAA members planning to go? See the Gathering website: villagecollectorsofmi.com (or Google "Seasons of Michigan Gathering").

The NCC representative for Region X, [Pat, PLEASE GET THIS NAME FROM JUDYTH'S ARTICLE OR DELETE FROM MINUTES], resigned because of health reasons. VAA wishes her a speedy recovery. The new Region X representative is Judy Stacey, also from the Southwestern Villagers in Arizona.

"Happy Trails to Arizona" is planned as a gathering destination in Arizona, from September 28 - October 2, 2011. The Gathering will be at a spa/resort just outside of Phoenix and will be hosted by the Arizona Dept. 56 Clubs.

Alita spoke about new products and new series introduced by D56. One of the series is the Williamsburg Village. Colonial Williamsburg has 301 acres with hundreds of restored, reconstructed, and historically furnished buildings. D56 is introducing the first three buildings and coordinating accessories in the continuing series. The other series is the new Disney Village which was introduced last year and sold at Sears stores. This year D56 is introducing it as a new Christmas series and it will be sold at all D56 retailers who choose to stock it.

She, along with Brian Young, showed Dept. 56's new Foggy Point Platform for Snow Village Halloween. The platform will hold one building, emits fog and has LED lights, along with some skulls and two trees. The price is $125.00. Water in a reservoir produces the fog. Members wondered if the platform could be placed on a wood surface safely without causing damage to the wood because of the water in the reservoir. The platform might require a water proof base.

Alita showed a new Hallmark ornament - an adorable snowman. The snowman will work in any Department 56 display. It is the free gift ornament given for joining the Hallmark Keepsake

Ornament Club.

Alita also mentioned an article originally printed in the newsletter for the Oregon Village Idiots with instructions about how to make glue dots for scrap booking projects which could also be used to secure accessories or trees in our displays and are completely removable. Glue dots can also be purchased at most craft stores such as Michael's.

Gazette - Pat Harmon asked everyone to keep membership their information current, especially email addresses. If you have a registered an email address and are not receiving a Gazette by email, please contact Pat to update your email address. Membership Rosters were distributed by email last week, and some problems have been found. Please review your entry and contact Pat at PatsVAA@aol.com or Peggy at (818) 763-3096 with a correction. Also please contact Peggy if you want a paper copy of the Gazette.

Many thanks to David Blair, of Dee's Flowers in Studio City, for his donation of two large bags of "floral pins." Many of us took lots of floral pins to use in our displays!

Bud Arntzen is the keeper of the VAA Inventory - he selects and brings the door prizes and raffle items to every meeting. Bud announced that if you win a door prize or raffle item that does not fit with your collection, it's okay to barter or exchange with another member for something else.

Linda Yount reported that the website for Village Addicts Anonymous is up and running, although it's a "work in progress" and not completed. She is adding links to Dept 56, the NCC, and vendors and sponsors, such as City Lights. The website address is <http://www.villageaddicts.com>. Linda asked for help from all members - please let her know what you would like to see on the website. Submit all suggestions to Linda Yount at vaawebmaster@gmail.com. Linda also asked for photos our member's villages and displays for the website.

After a short break, during which we shopped until we dropped, Brian Young told us about what's new and what is happening with Enesco/Dept. 56. Then, on to our favorite part of the meeting: Door prizes, raffles and special raffles.

And the speaker was Brian Young from City Lights!

What's Happening with Dept 56 from Brian Young, owner of City Lights, San Diego.

Brian Young, owner of City Lights in San Diego, spoke to the VAA members at the June meeting about what's new and what is happening with Dept. 56 since the acquisition by Enesco.

City Lights opened in September of 1991 as a small 1,000 sq. ft. operation intended to be open 3 days a week only. Brian Young, the owner, had been retired for 2 years from being Managing Director of a large retail group in London, but needed something to do, and a small shop in a seasonal business sounded ideal. Motivated not by money, but rather just the need to be occupied, the concept of City Lights was created.

In its early days, City Lights was mainly a year round Christmas Store with only two collectible lines, Department 56 and Annalee. As time progressed, and the store became more well known, its clientele grew, and with that, so did the product lines. City Lights became a Showcase dealer for Department 56 after its first year, and a "Gold Key" dealer shortly after that. Needless to say, as the store continued to grow, so did the man hours needed to keep the business running, and the space to display everything. City Lights is now open 7 days a week, all year long, and has a sales floor of over 22,000 sq ft and an additional 10,000 sq ft for warehousing.

City Lights is a family run business, with Laura, Brian's wife and Spencer, their son, all working to serve its customers. Along with them, there is a full knowledgeable and friendly staff to help with any questions and to offer their expert advice.

Brian Young spoke at VAA's June meeting, told us about his involvement with Dept. 56, and shared his insight into the future of Enesco/Dept 56. Brian and City Lights, as one of the foremost Dept 56 vendors in the country, have worked very closely with Dept 56 for the past several years.

At the time of its purchase of Dept. 56, Enesco had established reps in place. Now, some of the Enesco reps and some of the Dept. 56 reps are working with both the Enesco and Dept. 56 lines, which unfortunately is causing confusion. The dealers are not pleased with this situation and hope it is straightened out soon. After the acquisition, Enesco left Dept. 56's management team in place, including Dept 56's CEO Sue Agar. In Brian's opinion, Sue is doing a great job promoting the Dept. 56 line and fulfilling its obligations to the vendors.

There has been a big change in the marketing strategy for Dept. 56. With fewer small retail stores and many Hallmark stores no longer featuring Dept 56, Enesco has stepped up the services offered to the major retailers. Dept. 56 has a strong product line and has limited its production in the last several years (something that we, as consumers, have long asked for).

The Dept. 56 factories are in the south of China, and as we know, the buildings are painted by hand. Production has slowed because of a shortage in labor. Believe it or not, there is a shortage of labor in the south of China to hand paint porcelain buildings! There are two main types of factories in that region - electronics factories to manufacture chips and other components, and small factories which hand paint porcelain or plastic items. Many laborers prefer to work in the electronics factories for the simple reason that the pay is more.

As a result of the production problems, Enesco was forced to discontinue many lines. Also as a result of production problems, Dept. 56 will not be manufacturing any animated pieces this year. City Lights is currently buying its animated pieces from the Mr. Christmas, who previously manufactured for Dept 56.

Brian mentioned that Dept. 56 packaging has changed in that the sleeves are being printed with fewer colors, resulting in a huge savings.

Dept. 56 always printed a retail price on its catalogues, which always were meant to be sold to customers. City Lights, along with many stores, give catalogues to their regular customers. First time buyers are asked to pay for their catalogue, but the price of the catalogue is refunded from the first purchase.

After the meeting, Brian disclosed that City Lights is building an all new all black Halloween room, featuring Dept 56 and other Halloween products, which will open later this summer. City Lights hold its annual Open House on October 23, with 5 different artists attending, including one from Dept 56.

To VAA Board Members,

After deep thought and consideration, I have come to a very difficult decision. As much as I have enjoyed being a board member and Co-President, I feel that I need to resign as Co-President. This is due to a difficult and very stressful work situation, I feel I no longer have the time that is needed to give VAA the proper attention that it requires. I feel it would be detrimental to the other board members as well as the general membership for me to continue on as the Co-President.

Again, I am sorry for having to resign, but I only the VAA's best interests in mind.

So please accept this resignation as of today June 16, 2010.

Sincerely,
Kimberly P Harmon

Dear Kimberly,

With deep regret, we accept your resignation.

On a personal note, I totally understand your problems with a work schedule that consumes your life. You have been a fabulous and wonderful co-prez and have breathed new life into the Club. Your ideas and vision were so amazing and gave us a new lease on life during the past year.

You will be missed but not forgotten.

Many many thanks for your hard work, your vision, your ideas, your enthusiasm and your commitment.

Myrna

Potluck starts promptly at noon - please try to have your potluck dish on the table prior to that time.
Many, many thanks!!!

June 21, 2010

Dear Collectors:

It is my great pleasure to write to let you all know about a wonderful collectors' event planned for this fall to introduce collectors to a new Village inspired by buildings found in "Colonial Williamsburg", Virginia. This will be an event that is different from any event we have ever hosted.

The event will take place at the "Woodlands" which is part of historical "Colonial Williamsburg". Some of you may remember attending a Mid-Atlantic Village Gathering there in the mid 1990s. The "Woodlands" cottages have been replaced with a beautiful new hotel and conference center.

The dates of this event are October 22 - 24, 2010 and the convention fee will include a special event piece (available only for event attendees), a ticket to all "Colonial Williamsburg" exhibits including the buildings that inspired the new "Williamsburg" Village Series, a goody bag and private luncheon.

The luncheon is scheduled for Saturday, October 23rd at 12:00 noon, and among the invited guests will be Jeff Junkins, the artist who designed the new series. Jeff will be on hand to sign your pieces before the luncheon. A historian from the "Colonial Williamsburg" Foundation will talk about holiday decorating in the Della Robbia style used in Williamsburg at the time of the Revolution and continues today. Attendees will be able to tour of some of the building designed for the Williamsburg Village series and the pass will be good for the entire weekend.

Jeff will be available to sign any "Williamsburg" Village piece you buy or bring to the event and answer your design questions.

The NCC will also be on hand to help with the event and answer questions. We may even meet some collectors who are interested in joining a collector's club.

To register for this event please call Department 56 Consumer Services at 1(800) LIT TOWN (548-8696). Included with this letter is a flyer with all pertinent information that can be reproduced and added to your next club newsletter.

You won't want to miss this opportunity! There are some surprises planned for you, too! You'll just have to attend to find out it!

Additional NCC News - we have a new Region X rep

Hello, my name is Judy Stacey, and I will be filling the remainder of Diane Jolin's term as NCC Region X Rep. Diane felt it was necessary to resign so that she could concentrate on overcoming some health issues.

I am one of the founding members of our Department 56 collectors club, The Desert Villagers. Our club is located in the West Valley of Phoenix, AZ, and we recently celebrated our 10th Anniversary.

I began collecting D56 Villages back in December, 1997 with a Christmas gift of "Grandma's Cottage" in Original Snow Village. That village grew and soon New England Village, Christmas in the City, and the entire Season's Bay Village were added to my collection.

I live in the West Valley of Phoenix in a suburb called "Surprise" with my husband, Ken, of 25 years and our Westie, Sammy, who is a Therapy Dog. Sammy and I volunteer and visit patients at Hospice of the Valley, and at our local hospital. My husband is a history buff and is very much interested in the newest village, Colonial Williamsburg, so I know our collection will be growing again!

I'm pleased to be your Regional Rep, and will be updating you with information I receive from the NCC. PLEASE CONTACT ME AT JAS56ER@GMAIL.COM whenever you need anything or want to tell me information that should be sent to everyone in our Region.

Unfortunately, I began receiving some very trashy email from the email id that contained ncc56.com so that is automatically going into the trash so I will not respond to that id.

I hope you check out the NCC website often. Two changes have been added recently.

1. The Department 56

Website www.department56.com has a new feature. In the PRODUCT section you will be able to view an online video of how an animated product works. For example: if you look up 809379 Foggy Point Platform. You will notice an icon: Product Video. Click on this and you will open a short video that shows the animation of this exciting new product. We have added this feature for about 40 different Department 56 products, most are Village items.

2. A Press release and Letter to Collectors concerning the new Williamsburg Village Collection. Click the following link to get to this information.

<http://www.ncc56.com/ColonialWilliamsburg/PRelease.htm>

Also, I hope you have been checking out the information on the upcoming Gathering that will be hosted in our Region. Happy Trails to AZ 2011 will be held in Litchfield Park, AZ September 29 - October 2, 2011. There's info on the NCC website, and you can also get all the info at www.happytrailsaz.com.

Please check it out.

Way to go Judyth!

These Crazy Collectors

Collectors: who are we and why do we do it? You walk into a store and see one little thing (or big thing) that you think is beautiful or funny or just too cute to pass by. It would look "just right" on the coffee table or in the curio cabinet or on a shelf. Then, you think, or someone says, "you should get another one of those," and the downhill slide begins. The number of objects begins to grow as the balance in our checkbooks begins to shrink. Two hundred objects later, you are a COLLECTOR.

In our club, we have COLLECTORS. I am always amazed when I go into someone's home and there are not just one or two collections but seemingly dozens. One such collector is Judyth Rischall.

What makes Judyth light up and glow all over? No, it isn't just when she sees Jerry. It is when she spies an unusual elephant! Judyth loves elephants. She said they make her smile.

Judyth's mother-in-law collected elephants and Judyth would buy her an elephant when she was traveling or at a tourist attraction. Then, one day she found a "toothache" elephant that was so cute and she couldn't part with it. Thus, began a collection of over 300 elephants and those are just the ones on display in the house.

Among others, she has Dumbos, Babars, Hortons, Humphries, Eugenes, Manfreds, Krinkles, and Steiffs. There is an elephant in Elizabethan dress and two elephants with magi. There is even an Origami elephant made by a friend. And, there are elephant candle holders and elephant lamps. Their most unusual elephant is The Elder, a large wooden elephant head that has an ancient yet modern look.

At Christmas time, out come the approximately 400 elephant ornaments to be displayed on the elephant Christmas tree.

A cradle filled with stuffed elephants provides lots of entertainment for their cat, Nehi, who loves to bring several small ones down the stairs to play with every morning.

And, no elephant is off limits when Judyth spies it. She saw an elephant table as part of a display in I.

Magnin's window. And, yes, it now belongs to her.

And, I would be remiss if I didn't mention a few of the other collections Judyth and Jerry have, such as their antique mirrors, candlesticks, bells, Mark Roberts fairies, finials, all kinds of Christmas ornaments including Radko, Hallmark and a number that the children and grandchildren have made.

If you have been fortunate to attend an open house at the Rischall's, I'm sure you have been amazed at the number of decorated Christmas trees. The large ones are mostly 7 and 8 footers and the main attraction is the 10 foot tree decorated with a variety of beautiful ornaments and ornaments handmade by children and grandchildren. The large trees are themed. There is the Heart tree, Angel/Precious Moments tree, Santa tree, Jerry's special tree, the Elephant tree, Snowman tree, Bears and Animals tree, The Nutcracker tree, Bird tree, and Cartoon Characters tree. The smaller trees are decorated with Candy ornaments, mini Santas, Balls, and mini ornaments. It is quite impressive and just lovely. It's like being in a Christmas wonderland.
